

50 Ways Your Church Can Bless Your Community Through Literacy

Click hyperlinks for additional information and examples.

In the church, ministry through literacy can be done at many levels and with various age groups. The body of Christ is a powerful group of people with diverse skills, passions, and gifts. Each member can take part in assisting and equipping other members in the areas of literacy and education.

1. Pray – Churches large and small can pray. Not every church can host a family reading fair on the Border or begin a program to teach English to speakers of other languages. But every church can pray for its community.
